Hi Monica,

I'm writing in reference to a subpoena the production of which we didn't receive this morning. The production was supposed to be sent at 10 AM. Please let me know the status as soon as possible. Much thanks! Attached is the subpoena again for your reference.

Sincerely,

Blair Chintella

Blair, there was a Motion filed by AF on the 13th that requires a decision by the court before we will release.

Dear Monica,

The filing of a motion by the plaintiff does not suspend Comcast's duty to produce the information. Here is a cite.

A protective order does not prevent a party from disclosing information obtained other than through the court's processes. Seattle Times Co. v. Rhinehart, 467 U.S. 20 (1984). A court's inaction on a motion for a protective order does not relieve a person from complying with the discovery request. See e.g. Hepperle v. Johnston, 590 F.2d 609 (5th Cir. 1979) (regarding the taking of a deposition).^[1] See also Batt v. Kimberly-Clark Corp., 438 F. Supp. 2d 1315, 1317-18 (N.D. Okla. 2006) (motion to quash). Precedent pursuant to Bonner v. Prichard, 661F.2d 1206 (11th Cir. 1981).

[1] Precedent pursuant to Bonner v. Prichard, 661F.2d 1206 (11th Cir. 1981).

Please let me know when/if you will produce the information or we will be filing a motion to compel.

Sincerely,

Blair Chintella

Blair, the motion requests the court to halt your subpoenas and were the court to grant the motion and we had complied with the subpoena prior to that, while a known motion was pending, we would be subject to sanctions and fines under the Cable Act 47 U.S.C. 551. Consequently, we will release as soon as the Court denies the Motion, not before. If the court grants AF's motion, we will not release at all on any of the remaining subpoenas.

Monica,

Did you review the case law I cited in my a last e-mail and discuss it with Comcast's Georgia counsel?

Sincerely,
